SLH 1989, Act 63, authorizes the governor of the State of Hawaii to establish a legally enforceable cafeteria plan within the meaning of section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, for the exclusive benefit of eligible employees of the State. Subtitle 5 of Title 14, Administrative Rules, is adopted to implement and administer the State of Hawaii cafeteria plan. [Eff. DEC 15 1989] (Auth: SLH 1989, Act 63) (Imp: SLH 1989, Act 63)

§14-51-2 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is clearly intended by the context:

"Allocated amount" means the amount of compensation reduction, if any, authorized by the employee which shall equal the eligible expenses associated with the component plan elected by the employee.

"Benefit election date" means July 1 of each plan year or such other date as the plan administrator may establish in lieu of this date. For a newly eligible employee, benefit election date also means the first day such employee is eligible for benefits under a component plan.

"Benefit election form" means the form provided by the plan administrator or designated parties for the purpose of electing to participate in this plan.

"Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of subsequent superseding revenue laws.

"Compensation" means all remuneration paid in cash to an employee by the employer during any plan year, including an employee's basic salary, wages, bonus, commissions, overtime pay, shift differentials, any other supplemental compensation, including premium pay and longevity pay.

"Compensation reduction" means the reduction of an employee's "compensation" as defined in section 14-51-2 in return for the payment by the employer of "eligible expenses" as defined in section 14-51-2.

"Component plan" means:

- (1) Any health benefit plan contracted for by the Hawaii Public Employees Health Fund under chapter 87, HRS, which requires employee contributions; and
- (2) Any employee organization health benefit plan approved by the Hawaii Public Employees Health Fund Board of Trustees for employer contribution transfers, provided that such plan provides to the plan administrator such information and documentation as the plan administrator may determine to be necessary or desirable, at any time and from time to time, to establish to the plan administrator's satisfaction that each of the following requirements has been met by such plan:
 - (A) The component plan is an "accident or health plan" within the meaning of section 105(e) of the Code;
 - (B) Any other requirements applicable to the determination of whether benefits provided under the plan constitute "qualified benefits" within the meaning of regulations promulgated under section 125 of the Code are satisfied.

"Eligible expenses" means the cost of any required employee monthly contributions which are necessary for employees and/or their eligible dependents to be covered pursuant to the terms of any component plan in which the employee has elected to participate.

"Employee" means any person who is eligible to enroll in a component plan and who is employed by the State of Hawaii. However, the term employee will not apply to such person if that person is subject to a collective bargaining agreement which specifically prohibits participation in this plan.

"Employer" means the State of Hawaii.

"Period of coverage" means a plan year, except that in the case of an employee who is newly eligible to participate in a component plan, it shall mean the period commencing on the date the employee is first eligible to participate in such component plan and ending on the last day of such plan year.

"Plan" means this Premium Conversion Plan.

"Plan administrator" means the "plan administrator" provided for in Subchapter 5.

"Plan year" means the twelve-month period beginning on July 1 and ending on the following June 30 or any other 12-month period the plan administrator may establish in lieu of such date. However, the first plan year shall begin on January 1, 1990 and end on June 30, 1990.

§14-51-22 Periods during which elections may be made; effective date of coverage. - (1) At least thirty-one days prior to the beginning of the plan year to which the benefit election form applies, in which case coverage shall become effective on the first day of the plan year; or

- (3) The plan administrator may cancel an employee's benefit election because the employee is no longer eligible for benefits under a component plan, in which case the cancellation shall become effective as of the same date on which the component plan coverage is canceled, and the employee may not make a new benefit election until the next designated enrollment period.

be canceled as of the same cancellation effective date. [Eff. DEC 15 1989] (Auth: SLH 1989, Act 63) (Imp: SLH 1989, Act 63)

§14-51-24 Changes in elections. (a) A benefit election may be canceled or changed prior to the end of a period of coverage, if both of the following conditions are met:

- (1) The cancellation or change is on account of and is consistent with a change in family status. Changes of family status include: marriage, divorce, or the annulment of marriage; employment or loss of employment of a spouse which results in a change in health care coverage available from the spouse's employer; the birth or adoption of a child, or the acquisition of a foster child; the loss of eligibility of the last dependent child for coverage under the employee's health care plan; transfer to a non-eligible employment classification; moving from the geographic area covered by the employee's carrier's plan or moving into an area where other component plans are available; a change to a new employment classification where other component plans are available or where the employee's carrier's plan is not available; and the joining of eligible dependents to the employee's household.

A participating employee must notify the plan administrator or delegated representative(s) by submitting the required form(s) within 31 days of a change in personal status or return to employment as described in section 14-51-23(a)(4) if the employee wishes to enroll, cancel, or otherwise change a benefit election under the provisions of this section.

FUNDING AND PAYMENT OF BENEFITS

§14-51-31 Funding. All benefits under this plan shall be funded through compensation reduction elections authorized by participating employees. The compensation received during a period of coverage by each participating employee shall be reduced by the allocated amount. Compensation reduction will be prorated over each payroll period. [Eff. DEC 15 1989] (Auth: SLH 1989, Act 63) (Imp: SLH 1989, Act 63)

§14-51-32 Funding limitation. Compensation reduction shall be limited to the amount of eligible expenses in any period of coverage. Except in the case of the occurrence of an event defined in section 14-51-24(a), an employee cannot change an election during a period of coverage. In the event the required employee monthly contribution level necessary for continued coverage under a component plan changes during a plan year, the actual amount of compensation reduction will be changed by an identical amount. The plan administrator shall designate the comptroller or the finance officer to reduce the employee's compensation by the amount authorized by the employee and disburse the same amount as payment for the selected component plan premium(s) in accordance with the compensation reduction election authorized by the employee. [Eff. DEC 15 1989] (Auth: SLH 1989, Act 63) (Imp: SLH 1989, Act 63)

Amounts of compensation reduction will be used only for eligible expenses actually incurred during the period of coverage for which such designation applies. Any amount of compensation reduction designated by the employee which has not been paid on behalf of the employee for eligible expenses at the close of the plan year will be forfeited by the employee and revert in whole to the employer. Employee organizations and their employee organization plan representatives shall be responsible for providing a monthly accounting of any amounts received by the employee organization on behalf of an employee which were not paid for eligible expenses during the applicable plan year. Employee organizations shall return all unpaid amounts to the plan administrator within 120 calendar days. [Eff. DEC 15 1989] (Auth: SLH 1989, Act 63) (Imp: SLH 1989, Act 63)
