CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD CHECK: Individuals who are recommended for hire are required to undergo a criminal history record clearance and other checks, as applicable.

STATE RECRUITING OFFICE'S LEVELS OF REVIEW: Applicants will be notified of their status in writing. Applicants who do not agree with a decision or action taken by the State Recruiting Office shall have three successive levels of review. Each review must be concluded before an applicant may request the next higher review. Note that each review is addressed to a specific office.

1. ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW. This is the first level of review. All applicants will be notified of the status of their application when processing of the application is completed. Applicants who do not agree with an action taken by our office or who have questions about their application are strongly advised to first call our office to obtain clarification. Office staff may be reached during business hours at (808) 587-0936. Applicants who still do not agree with an action taken by our office may then formally request an Administrative Review in writing. The Request must include the job title, recruitment number, and any relevant information, and must be postmarked no later than seven (7) working days from the date of our notice. Requests should be mailed via U.S. Postal Service to: State Recruiting Office, State Department of Human Resources Development, 235 South Beretania Street, Room 1100, Honolulu, Hawaii 96813. This office is unable to accept requests for review via telephone or fax.

2. INTERNAL COMPLAINT. The Internal Complaint is the second level of review. An applicant who does not agree with an action resulting from the Administrative Review may then file an Internal Complaint with the State Department of Human Resources Development (HRD). More information about the Internal Complaint procedures, required forms, and mailing address will be provided in our letter regarding the Administrative Review, if necessary.

3. APPEAL TO THE MERIT APPEALS BOARD. An appeal to the Merit Appeals Board is the third level of review. An applicant who does not agree with an action resulting from the Internal Complaint with the State Department of Human Resources Development (HRD) may then file an appeal to the Merit Appeals Board. Further information and details regarding procedures, required forms, and the mailing address to file an appeal are available at <http://hawaii.gov/hrd/main/ecd/mab>. If the applicant does not agree with the internal complaint decision rendered by HRD, it may be appealed in writing to the State Merit Appeals Board within twenty (20) days from the date of the action on the internal complaint. An internal complaint must have been completed by HRD before an appeal may be requested.

If you have questions, please contact our office during business hours at (808) 587-0936 for further information.
