Historical Note: Chapter 14-14.01 is based substantially upon Subchapter 1 of Chapter 14-14, Hawai`i Administrative Rules. [Eff 6/22/81; comp 8/1/91; am and comp 6/11/92; R 4/1/2002]

§14-14.01-1 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for orderly and uniform procedures for the resignation of employees from state service. [Eff JAN 28 2005] (Auth: HRS §§76-17, 76-30) (Imp: HRS §76-30)

§14-14.01-2 Applicability. This chapter shall apply to civil service and exempt employees unless otherwise specified. [Eff JAN 28 2005] (Auth: HRS §§76-17, 76-30) (Imp: HRS §76-30)

§14-14.01-3 Notice of resignation. When an employee elects to separate from the service, the employee shall notify the appointing authority in writing at least fifteen calendar days before the date of the separation, unless the appointing authority waives this requirement, or due to circumstances specified under section 14-14.01-4. [Eff JAN 28 2005] (Auth: HRS §§76-17, 76-30) (Imp: HRS §76-30)

§14-14.01-4 Failure to report to duty; resignation. (a) An employee who fails to report to duty for a period of fifteen calendar days without providing the employer with reasons for the absence during that period shall be deemed to have resigned. The effective date of the resignation shall be the day immediately following the fifteenth day of absence.

(b) If the employee expresses a desire to continue employment within fifteen days from the last day the employee reported for work, the employee shall not be deemed to have resigned. The appointing authority may consider appropriate disciplinary action, including discharge, where the employee fails to provide satisfactory reasons for failure to report for duty as expected. [Eff JAN 28 2005] (Auth: HRS §§76-17, 76-30) (Imp: HRS §76-30)

§14-14.01-5 Withdrawal of resignation. A resignation shall be binding on the employee upon the submission of the resignation notice. It may be withdrawn only with the appointing authority's consent. [Eff JAN 28 2005] (Auth: HRS §§76-17, 76-30) (Imp: HRS §76-30)

§14-14.01-6 Resignation submitted during an investigation. When an employee submits a written resignation while being the subject of an investigation pertaining to an alleged impropriety on the employee's part, the appointing authority shall determine whether to:

- (1) Discontinue the investigation and accept the resignation, provided that the requirements of section 14-14.01-3 have been met; or
- (2) Continue the investigation and accept the resignation on the condition that it may be changed to a discharge, depending upon the outcome of the investigation. [Eff

JAN 28 2005] (Auth: HRS §§76-17, 76-30)
(Imp: HRS §76-30)

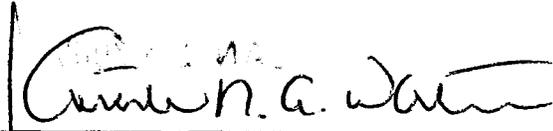

§14-14.01-7 Resignation submitted following notice of discharge. If an employee submits a written resignation after receiving notice of discharge, the appointing authority shall determine whether to:

- (1) Accept the resignation, provided that, notwithstanding section 14-14.01-3, the effective date is on or before the date the discharge would have taken place; or
- (2) Reject the resignation and effect the discharge. [Eff JAN 28 2005] (Auth: HRS §§76-17, 76-30) (Imp: HRS §76-30)
