

The following information on House members was received from Speaker Nadine K. Nakamura's office on Monday, December 9, 2024:

Please see the data points that were cited by Speaker Nakamura during her presentation to the Commission on Salaries:

- During the 32nd Legislature approximately half of the House members (23/51) who served during the biennium held a second job
- During the 31st Legislature just under half of the House members (20/51) who served during the biennium held a second job.
- If rental property income is accounted for during both the 31st and 32nd Legislature, more than half of the House members relied on a second income source.
