

Proclamation

WHEREAS, observed throughout May 2025, promises to highlight the dedication of Hawai'i's public service sector employees who remain committed to the people of our state; and

WHEREAS, calls attention to how crucial state employees are to strengthen our communities and meet the safety, health and wellness needs of the public; and

WHEREAS, fosters the Public Employees Roundtable's recognition of state employees during Public Service Recognition Week from May 4–10, 2025 for their many contributions to the daily lives of kama'āina and visitors; and

WHEREAS, brings the Executive Branch of Hawai'i State Government in partnership with the Public Employees Roundtable and the Council for Excellence in Government to celebrate Public Service Recognition Week; and

WHEREAS, recognizes the courage, determination and perseverance state employees demonstrate in the workplace; and how public servants are determined to work in unity—with purpose and pride in public service—and demonstrating their dedication, talents and the Aloha Spirit in all state departments.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Josh Green, M.D., Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim May 2025, as in Hawai'i and call upon residents of the Aloha State to honor and mahalo our public servants whose unwavering commitment, compassion, and excellence continue to uplift our communities and exemplify the true meaning of aloha.

Done at the State Capitol in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this second day of May 2025.

Josh Green, M.D.
Governor, State of Hawai'i
